RIOTOUS EXCURSIONISTS.—The steam-er Jane Mosely carried to Washington yesterday an excursion party from Christicid, many of whom don't come to town often, but when they do want everybody to know it. Some of them after "taking in" the capital city according to their notion of enjoyment and endeavoring to swallow all the intoxicants within reach, boarded the steamer on their homeward voyage about five o'clock and immediately proceeded to take charge of the boat by unseem-ly and riotous conduct. The captain and crew were powerless to preserve order, and drunken men fought and broke up furniture all the way down from Washington. Upon the arrival of the steamer at this port Captain Posey telephoned for the assistance of the police, and Officer George Crump soon reached the wharf, where he was told by the captain that the rioters were so numerous that it would be unsafe for him to board the steamer. The policeman, however, called to one or two bystanders to follow him, and Officers every section of the State say the trees Wash. Sherwood and George Jones having arrived in the meantime, the party were soon on the boat in search of the disorderly parties who were at the time terrorizing everybody else on board. They were not long in finding their men, and, not without considerable difficulty, soon reappeared at the gang plank with Nelson Polyett, jr., Nelson Polyett, sr., and Charles and Wm. H. Sterling, who were soon conducted to the station house and locked up. This morning Mayor Strauss fined the younger Polyett $25 for carrying cancelled, weapons, discharged the concealed weapons, discharged the elder, and fined the two Sterlings 85 each for drunken and disorderly conduct. The men paid their fines and left for Washington. It is said that be-fore the Moseley left Washington the patrol wagon was kept busy conveying Chrisfield excursionists to the station house. The arrest of the men here caused some excitement and a large crowd gathered at and near the steamer's wharf. A WELCOME CHANGE.—The late hot

Between seven and eight o'clock last evening the westeight o'clock last evening the western heavens portended rain, but later the clear sky under the clouds illumined by the glorious sunset made temperatural we were to have a repetition of Wednesday's capriciousness on the part of things meteorological, and, as the sequel proved, what rain did fall was to the east and south of Alexandria. Again we could hear the rolling thunder and witness the discharge from the arial batteries without $300 a.m. and 3.45 a.m. an of Alexandria. Again we could hear the rolling thunder and witness the dis-charge from the arial batteries without experiencing the rainfall. The cool breeze which broke out, however, was intensely refreshing, and people who had sweltered from the scorehing sunduring the day bared their heads and gave vent to exclamations of delight akin to those of travelers on the Sahara when they reach an oasis. The wind, however, to the sorrow of all, died out about ten o'clock, and the indications of more sultriness were very pro-nounced, but later in the night old Boreas again came to the rescue, and before morning the temperature had become pleasant. To-day the weather has been delightful, the wind holding to the northwest, and the prospects for several days of more congenial weather than has prevailed during the week are good—that is, according to the presages 5:00 p. up. of the Weather Bureau.

POLICE REPORT.-Last night was clear till about 3 o'clock when there was a light rain. There were five prisoners and one lodger at the station

A TEMPORARY SUSPENSION.—The work of grading Franklin street from Fairfax to Royal for the road bed of the electric railway was temporarily sus-pended to-day, the Superintendent of Police and the committee on streets having notified the officers of the railhaving notified the officers of the rail-way company that in filling in on that street they had exceeded the authority given them by the City Council. There is a heavy fall on Franklin street from Fairfax to Royal, and to make a more easy grade for the railway line an em-bankment of from 3 to 7 feet was being generated when an compulaint of some constructed when, on complaint of some of the property owners, the Superin-tendent of Police directed a suspension of the work till the matter can be ar-ranged satisfactorily to all concerned.

A SPLENDID ADDRESS.—The address of Rev. I. M. Mercer, of Greenville, S. C., to railroad men upon the subject, "What is the Difference?" at the Men's Rally at the Young Men's Christian Association Sunday, afternoon, was one of the control of the c unusual interest and power. Many handkerchiefs were used and many hands were seen to surreptitiously wipe away the tears; seldom has a crowd of men at the rally been as deeply moved as they were Sunday, and should Rev. Mr. Mercer be announced for another address in Charlotte he can be assured of even a larger crowd than he had Sunday.—Charlotte, N. C., News.

Mr. Mercer was at one time pastor of the Baptist Church in this city.

AFFRAY .- A personal encounter be-AFFRAY.—A personal electrical electrical and a non-resident oc-curred last night on King street, near Columbus, during which blows were exchanged and weapons displayed, but owing to the efforts of bystanders no damage was inflicted. It is said this is the second hostile meeting between the parties within the past twelve months, and jealousy is supposed to be the origin of the trouble.

PROPERTY SALE,-Mai, J. W. Green has sold to the Potomac Novelty Com-pany the brick stable and lot, 80x120 feet, in the rear of their property at the northwest corner of King and Lee streets. VIRGINIA'S PINE FOREST.—It looks like the pine forests of Virginia might every section of the State say the trees are dying in great numbers. In some cases whole forests have been known to be killed in a few days. Commis-sioner of Agriculture Whitehead says the pines are being killed by a long in-sect with a sharp-pointed head. It bores into the trees, causing them to soon die. Col. Whitehead is of the opinion this destructive insect is the same that is found in hickory logs sometime after they are cut when the tree is full of sap. The worm appar-ently hatches in the bark of the hickory. Chestnuts are dying the same way as the pines, the Commissioner says. Col. Whitehead says there are more destructive insects this year than ever before. Some of those that a few years ago used to cause great injury to certain crops and fruit trees have near-ly entirely disappeared, but new ones have come to feed upon other crops, and they are very destructive.

rest of Colonel Ray, a prominent banker and military man of Port Arthur, Man., well known throughout the entire dominion, has created a tremendous sensation in society circles. The facts of the scandal are said to be these: Colonel Ray met on the street Mrs. Bathurst, wife of Dr. Bathurst, a well-known physician, and engaged her in conversation over church matters, both being leading members of the city church. They walked toward the Barhurst residence, and, when it was reached, the colonel asked permission to enter and continue the conversation. While in a fainting condition, Mrs. Bathurst says that he accomplished his purpose. When the lady recovered she alarmed the household. Cooper, of Louisville, Ky., who has been visiting his sons in this city for a month or more has had one or two romantic spots in his life. Twenty-nine years ago he went to the war, leaving behind him a loving wife and several children. A year or so after he went away the news arrived that he had been killed down in Georgia, but such was not the case. He went from Nash-ville to Louisville, Ky., where he fell in love with a woman and married her, thinking that his wife in Bristol was dead. A year ago he turned up all of a sudden in Louisville. After a brief correspondence he came to Bristol to see his wife and sons. It was an affectionate meeting, but he could not remain and soon returned to his second wife. He had not been here since till this month, A reporter was informed that he was going to desert wife No. 2 and return to his first love, but upon inquiry it was found to be a mistake. He says he is well pleased with his surroundings in Louisville and that wife
